

Turn to command
James Earl

The President announces that there is now clear and detailed evidence that the Soviet Government is introducing major offensive weapons designed for nuclear war in Cuba. A quarantine will be established to prevent further shipments of such weapons, and the President will make a major speech on this situation at 7 this evening.